Bible Study for all ages at 6:00 PM

Jeremiah 25:32 tells us, This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says:

"Look! Disaster will fall upon nation after nation! A great whirlwind of fury is rising from the most distant corners of the earth!"

The world is deeply hurting, but we are also deeply connected... and because we are so connected, the knowledge of disasters we face can easily spread worldwide. But, also because of our deeply connected world, love and kindness should spread even faster.

I believe that God uses terrible situations to bring about repentance and an opportunity for us to draw close to Him. We do not know what the next day holds for us, but if the next day comes we should use it wisely as an opportunity to share the gospel. Paul even encouraged us with this in Ephesians 5:16 - "making the most of your time, because the days are evil."

Truth is... the days are indeed evil, and this world is always going to be filled with struggle and hardship. Yet, in the midst of all the pain and suffering, God desires for us to spread love and kindness in the world around us.

While there seems nothing we can do to help get us past these moments of hurt, God wants us to know that what we can do is priceless. You see, when disaster strikes we can take this time to pray, trust God, and spread love and kindness to a world in desperate need.

In Christ,
Pastor Phil

Another year of missions discipleship is coming to a close. Through our theme this year, Loved So Much!, children attending Children in Action (CA) learned God's love compels believers to joyfully share God's good news and our lives. They've experienced our big God, the big world He made, and the big love he wants us to share with that world. They have been taught, encouraged, challenged, and loved. Please join us on Wednesday, May 28th at 6:00 to celebrate our children's wonderful achievements during this year.
