November 2022

Volume 65, Issue 11

What exactly is your weak place? The things within us that make us feel like we are never going to measure up and never going to make it? Things that make us feel less; less than strong, less than important.

We all have those times in our lives that we feel inadequate, broken, and unable to go on. In this life, there are always going to be those times.

But, today, I have good news for you. No matter how big your struggles may seem, His grace is sufficient. You see, it's okay to be tired, worn out, and even to run out of words to pray.

Our relationships may not be the best. Our circumstances may not be wonderful. Our finances may not be great. Our willpower may not be the strongest. Our confidence may not even be what we need it to be. But God is, has been and forever will be.

2 Corinthians 12:9-10 tells us this...

Each time he said, "My grace is all you need. My power works best in weakness." So now I am glad to boast about my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ can work through me. That's why I take pleasure in my weaknesses, and in the insults, hardships, persecutions, and troubles that I suffer for Christ. For when I am weak, then I am strong.

Do you constantly live with the weight of not being good enough? Take a good look at those weaknesses and then let him take those moments of weakness; just surrender them to Him and allow Him to show you how truly great His strength is and how much He truly loves you.

In Christ,

Pastor Phil

What would it be like to gather with Baptist women from many cultures and focus on prayer? The Baptist Women's World Day of Prayer offers that opportunity. When believers lift our hearts in prayer knowing others are doing the same in different time zones, we find encouragement and reassurance that God is at work around the globe. This day of prayer shared by women around the world is hosted by the Baptist World Alliance Women (BWA), an organization composed of seven continental unions representing 151 countries. Imagine the diversity. We are one in Christ, and in Him we have life.

Each year on the first Monday of November, women around the world are encouraged to meet and pray together for our world. Our world may be local, national, or international. It is a time to pray for peace and for God's people to Arise and Shine because when we rise up, He shines through. The 2022 theme is "Victorious Life" drawn from the truth of 2nd Corinthians 2:14.

Please join the ladies of Peninsula Baptist Association in this unique opportunity to join women around the world in prayer...
